This photograph shows the great western portal or entranceway of the huge Palace of Food Products. The half-dome is known as the Half-Dome of Vigor and is 113 feet in height. Brilliant, riotous colors are employed in the mosaic in the vault of the half-dome, which was designed by Mr. Jules Guerin, one of the most celebrated decorative artists in America. To the left are seen some of the ornamental shrubs that will be in bloom when the Panama-Pacific International Exposition opens at San Francisco in February, 1915.

A GLIMPSE OF A FAIRYLAND IN THE GREAT SOUTH GARDENS.

Copyright, 1914, by Panama Pacific International Exposition Company.
Upon entering the main gates of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition from San Francisco the visitor will find he must traverse a vast stretch of landscaped grounds, wherein are set millions of beautiful flowers in bloom, where fountains play and groups of statuary are set at intervals. This is the great South Gardens. The photograph herewith shows the South Gardens as they are today and gives a glimpse of the fairyland which will delight exposition visitors. Thousands of rare trees, palms and shrubs have been brought from all parts of the world for the landscaping, which is carried on in that sumptuous way which the semi-tropical climate of California permits. There have been brought to San Francisco giant tree ferns from Australia, rhododendrons from England and West Virginia, tulips from Holland, banana plants from Hawaii and Central America. Large trees, some of them more than sixty feet in height and of great girth, have been transplanted to the grounds. The Panama-Pacific International Exposition opens in San Francisco in February, 1915.

Home Coming Week At Clemson College

Clemson College, July 28.—Approximately one thousand former students and graduates of Clemson College have already replied to their invitations, signifying their intention of being present for "Home Coming Week," the big reunion occasion which will take place at Clemson College from noon of August 27th, to noon of August 31st. It is planned to make this one of the greatest affairs of the kind ever held by any Southern college. The acceptances already received make it certain that the capacity of Clemson's large barracks will be taxed to accommodate those who come.

President W. M. Riggs is doing everything possible to have invitations reach every one of the six thousand men who have attended Clemson. Many invitations, however, have been returned unclaimed and it is desired that any former Clemson men who have not yet received invitations write to the president. It is the college's purpose to make "Home Coming Week" a memorable event in the lives of all who attend and it is desired that all Clemsonites receive notice of the occasion. The attendance will have to be limited to former students only, because of limited facilities. It will be impossible to take care of even the wives of those who are "coming back." The accommodations will be sufficient for only the alumni and ex-students themselves, so large will be the number of these.

A most enjoyable program is being arranged for the five days of "Home Coming Week." The details of this will be announced later. Especially attractive features will be prepared for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the 28th, 29th, and 30th, respectively.

The Best Medicine in the World

"My little girl had dysentery very bad. I thought she would die. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured her, and I can truthfully say that I think it is the best medicine in the world," writes Mrs. William Orvis, Clare, Mich. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Col. R. A. Thompson

When it was reported last week that Col. R. A. Thompson of Walhalla was passing to the great beyond, The Anderson Mail contained the following tribute: "In his boyhood Col. Thompson learned the printer's trade, and he worked for a while on a newspaper at old Pendleton. That was long before the civil war. Later he studied law, and in 1860 he was a practicing attorney at old Pickens, and his standing was such that he was elected a member of the Secession Convention. He is the last surviving member of the patriots who signed the ordinance that severed South Carolina from the Union. This was done in Charleston in December, 1860, nearly fifty-four years ago. When the war broke out he volunteered, of course, and he rose to the command of a regiment.

After the war Oconee county was cut off from Pickens, and Walhalla was selected as the county seat. Col. Thompson located there and has lived there ever since, editing the Keowee Courier and practicing his profession, and enjoying the love and confidence of all the people. Col. Thompson was a lawyer, and a good one, but he spent as much time in trying to get people to compromise their differences as he ever spent in the court room. He was the friend and counselor, without fee or reward, of a host of people. He was a lawyer who discouraged litigation.

Col. Thompson was not an assertive man; he did not push himself forward as many men have done; but he was a man of fine intellect and strong mind, and the people of his section recognized these qualities and they always honored him when they could. No man ever stood higher in the esteem of his friends and neighbors.

A good and great man is passing from us. He has had a long life, and it has been filled with honors and good works. His time has come, and he is going to the reward promised the righteous.

NORTH CAROLINA MAN TELLS HOW HE SAVED HIMSELF FROM

J. E. Erwin Says Mayr's Stomach Remedy Brought Him Astonishing Relief.

J. E. Erwin of Winston-Salem, N. C., was for a long while the victim of serious disorders of the stomach. He tried all kinds of treatments and had many doctors.

One day he took a trial dose of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and was astonished at the results. The help he sought had come. He wrote:

"I am satisfied through personal use of the life-saving powers of your Wonderful Stomach Remedy. You have saved my life. I could have lived but a few weeks more had it not been for your remedy. I am enclosing a list of friend sufferers who ought to have some of your remedy."

Mr. Erwin's experience is a proof of the merit of the remedy. Just such enthusiastic letters come from thousands of others in all parts of the country who have found relief in this remarkable treatment. The first dose proves—no long treatment.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucous accretions and removes poisonous matter. It brings swift relief to sufferers from stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Many say it has saved them from dangerous operations and many are sure it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitations, so be cautious. Be sure it's MAYR'S. Go to Pickens Drug Co. and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing in cases they know of—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you its wonderful effects.—Adv.
